try a fun braided headband!

August 15, 2011 at 4:40:00 PM by Seventeen Magazine • 0 Comments

Braids are a super trendy hairstyle for the fall, especially the braided headband! Celebs like Nikki Reed are rocking this boho 'do all over the place, but you may not have time in the morning to create this elegantly disheveled style. If you're running late to class, slip on a plaited headband, like this one from Original Diva! It comes in four natural looking shades, plus it's heat resistant, so it will blend in with any hair texture you create! Pop it in over loose curls for a soft hippy vibe, or add it to an updo (like Nikki) for a subtle detail that will make your hairstyle stand out from the crowd.
